Schools Join 'Healthy Teeth' Program

DENTAL HEALTH WEEK is being observed in Arlington schools, with programs planned to remind children and adults of the importance of dental hygiene. Shown above are youngsters of Bishop School with Mrs. M. Audrey Meade, R.N., Supervisor of Nurses, of the Arlington School Dept. Miss Elsie Greenwood, principal of the Bishop School, has cooperated with Dr. Ignatius J. Fiorenza and Mrs. Meade in arranging a demonstration of proper brushing techniques. The bright smiles attest to the enthusiasm of the children.

Wing Named

By a standing vote of acclamation, the Corporation of Symmes hospital resolved the new addition shall be named "The Donald E. Nickerson Wing".

This stirring tribute to Nickerson, president of the Board of Trustees, was sparked by the presentation of a resolution by Merwin F. Ashley, vice president of the Board, to the members of the corporation at the annual meeting on Monday night.

Ashley pointed out that Nickerson emphasized that he had played only a small part. "Credit," he said, "must go to the many who worked on the fund drive, to the Building committee and to the thousands who contributed."

The dedication ceremonies for the new wing will be held on Saturday, April 3.

"Healthy Teeth - Happier Life" has been designated as the slogan for the 1965 National Children's Dental Health Week, Feb. 7-13. Throughout the nation thousands of communities will observe the program which is designed to impress the importance of good dental health on the nation's youth.

The Arlington school system is actively participating in this endeavor. An example of this enthusiasm is manifested above as the first grade class at the Bishop school attentively watch Mrs. M. Audrey Meade, R.N., Supervisor of Nurses, demonstrate proper toothbrush technique.

Helps On Capsule

Seaman Apprentice Roger E. Densmore, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell E. Densmore of 156 Gardner st., was aboard the anti-submarine support aircraft carrier USS Lake Champlain on Jan. 19, when the carrier recovered an unmanned Gemini-Titan II space capsule from the Atlantic after its sub-orbital flight from Cape Kennedy, Fla.

The Lake Champlain maneuvered alongside the capsule after its successful flight and hoisted it aboard for delivery to the U. S. Naval Station at Roosevelt Roads, Puerto Rico, where it was scheduled to be flown back to Cape Kennedy.

First reports from the Lake Champlain indicated the capsule completed the flight in excellent condition.

259 To Run For TMM

A total of 259 candidates seek 177 seats as Town Meeting members according to figures released this week by the Town Clerk's office.

Saturday at 5 p.m. was the last day and hour for candidates to file.

Included in the number of candidates were 137 seeking re-election.

In Precincts 2, 5, 8, 10, 12 and 13, the vacancies are due to the expiration of the regular three-year terms of town meeting members, and for one or two-year unexpired terms of town meeting members who have resigned, passed away or moved out of the precinct.

In Precincts 1, 3, 4, 6, 7, 9, 11 and 14, the terms of all present elected town meeting members are to expire due to a revision in the number of town meeting members in these precincts. Of the number to be elected in each such precinct, the first third in the order of votes received shall serve three years, the second third in such order shall serve two years, and the remaining third in such order shall serve one year.

The last time such a revision took place was in 1960 when 228 candidates were seeking 141 seats; 103 were seeking re-election.

The total number of candidates seeking election for Town Meeting members jumped from 150 less than two weeks before the final date for filing to the 259 at the deadline.

The most competition for office will take place in precinct 11 where 47 candidates seek 27 seats.

There are candidates for every office in each of the precincts.

Real Silver Money Needed

The U.S. mint is working around the clock to relieve the current coin shortage. For this the American people must be grateful to Mrs. Eva Adams, Director of the Mint, and her dedicated co-workers. But although the coin shortage is the immediate problem, the Treasury faces a far more serious long-range situation.

Consumption of silver, both for industry and coinage, is far outrunning present sources of supply. The mining industry is making a valiant effort to catch up, but in the meantime the Treasury must stretch out the silver supply it has.

Sometime early in the 1965 session of Congress, therefore, the Treasury may recommend legislation authorizing the first change in the silver content of dimes, quarters and half dollars since 1792—the year Alexander Hamilton recommended the present silver content to an infant Congress.

The Treasury is now pondering whether to recommend:

- Coins with no silver at all, and therefore as inherently valueless as transit tokens; or
- Retaining a percentage of silver, so our coinage will remain intrinsically valuable.

Many Congressional and business leaders feel the most constructive course is to retain silver content, even if at a lower level than the 90 percent. A coinage that is intrinsically valuable, they point out, is respected both at home and abroad.

Psychologically, it supports the value of our entire monetary system. It is significant that France, Italy, Austria and Germany—precisely the countries that have suffered the worst from currency devaluation—returned recently to silver coinage to regain respect for their monetary systems.

Economically, our country has in many ways tied itself to a silver coinage. Silver is the best electrical conductor. The gigantic and growing enterprise dependent on coin-operated devices—vending machines and pay telephones—has largely geared its machines to accept only our present silver coinage (by reacting to its conductivity). The disruption resulting from a radical change would be appalling.

Our present silver coinage is uneconomical to counterfeit. But a base metal coinage would be an open sesame to a flood of "slugs"—as many transit systems using tokens have discovered.

The feel, the sound, the sense of value and security in our present coinage are important roots of our American stability. Real silver money will help us retain our self-respect and the respect of all other nations.

That Man About Town

By MAT

The power of the press! Two weeks ago, there were only about 150 candidates for Town Meeting member. In many precincts, there were less people running than there were openings.

Through the publicity given this bad situation by the Advocate (and the News) plus yours truly, at closing time last Saturday, there are 259 candidates. Of these, 137 seek re-election. Very good, very good, very good.

The only precinct which did not meet the challenge was Prec. 1, where there are only 12 runners for 12 spots. No doubt, there could be one or more sticker campaigns. These are always interesting but seldom successful.

Biggest contests loom in Precincts 11 & 14, where there, respectively, 47 candidates for 27 slots and 38 for 27.

After pounding ourselves on the back (we gotta punch ourselves in the nose. We failed to point out the fact that nomination papers must be taken out from the Town Clerk's office at least 48 hours before the final filing time.

You just can't wander in on the morning of the last day and file by 5 p.m. We hear that about 25 people got caught in this legal trap. However, we are not too sorry.

If you were seeking an important job, wouldn't you find out something about it and any special requirements in advance? This type of candidate, if elected, would wait for the Town Moderator to mumble through the cerberge of a certain article before even thinking about the subject—and, maybe, not even then.

We are rather happy that the Selectman's race is a head-on affair. In the past decade, this race has become hodge-podge with Tommy Rawson or "Pud" Hurd and many others, suddenly deciding to run. Evidently the Bullock camp has Hurd and Rawson well trained because, this year, it is only incumbent John Bullock vs former Selectman Arthur Saul.

This is going to be a battle, people are saying on street corners, in homes and at beer parties.

Not entirely in the second Ringling Ring is the face-to-face challenge of Charles Kent's onslaught on the well-established seat of Assessor Walter Cooledge. This promises to be something. Lest we forget, "Buzzer" Cooledge was a tremendous halfback on the A.H.S. football at about 146 lbs.—back in the 1920's. The coach designed lightning, touchdown plays around Cooledge's "will-o-the-wisp" abilities.

But, Charlie Kent was a tremendous athlete, too. So, see what we mean?

The contest for School Committee IS hodge-podge with nine candidates for election or re-election for the three spots for the regular 3-year term or the single seat for the 2-year unexpired term. All mixed up? So are we.

If, two weeks before election, some person comes dashing around the corner at Railroad and Mass. aves, and knocks you down, rest assured he or she is running for School Committee.

Kent Explains Position

To the editor:

I wish to explain my position to the voters of Arlington.

I am officially announcing my candidacy for election to the Board of Assessors. It is my belief that I will make an interested and intelligent contribution to the efforts of his important board.

Last week I submitted my resignation as a member of your School Committee. This resignation is to take effect on Feb. 25, (a week following the last committee meeting before elections).

I have served on the School Committee for the past seven years, currently as chairman. My present term has 2 remaining years. By resigning at this time, I am making it possible for the voters of Arlington to elect my successor at the next Town election on March 6, 1965 and at the same time I am fulfilling my obligation as chairman.

Sincerely,
Charles R. Kent

Speaker

Monsignor Francis J. Lally, noted editor, author, civic leader, and humanitarian, will speak at St. Agnes School Hall, Medford st., Feb. 8 at 8:30 p.m.

His talk, entitled, "Civil Rights and Boston's Future," will examine the role of the suburbs in solving the complex problems of the underprivileged Negro. In addition, the controversial subject of "de facto" segregation in the Boston school system will be discussed.

All proceeds from this lecture will benefit the newly established Arlington Civil Rights Committee scholarship fund.

To the editor:

The members of Menotomy Chapter DAR wish to thank you for the generous space you gave to our November meeting, when the state officers were guests of our chapter.

We also wish to thank the photographer for the fine pictures and for her patience.

Our state regent, Miss Gertrude A. McPeck, was very pleased with our publicity.

Sincerely yours,
(Mrs. John J.) Gladys F. Cox
11 Appleton st.

P.S. We are late in expressing our thanks to you, due to the sickness of our corresponding secretary.

To the editor,
The Arlington Democratic Town Committee wishes to express its sincere thanks and appreciation to you and your staff for the kindness that you extended to us through your newspaper.

We really appreciate the coverage and fairness with which our releases were handled.

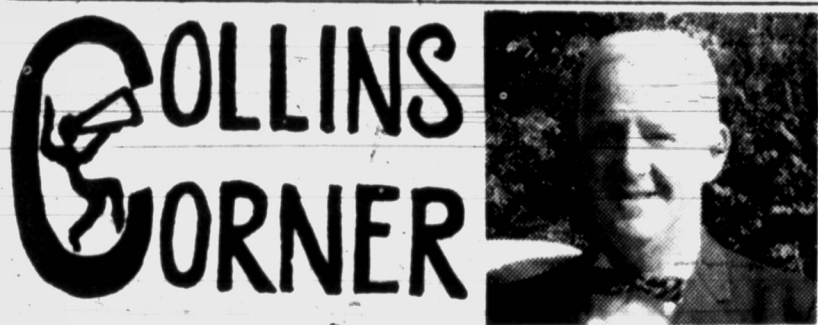

All too often we overlook the important part our local newspaper plays in the community, and take for granted the fact that it is there. I am well aware of the problems you face daily and am truly grateful for the civic responsibility you evidence and the public service you perform.

Our committee is working constantly to maintain the high standard that our people deserve, and will continue to work for improvements to make our town a better place in which to live.

Sincerely yours,
Charles J. Nolan
Chairman

HUGO W. MOSER, M.D.

"Director of Research and Training" at the Walter E. Fernald State School, Waltham, will speak on "His Work with the Patients" at a meeting of the "Fernald League for Retarded Children" in Howe Hall on Feb. 7, at 5 p.m. Arlington committee members include Mr. and Mrs. Henry Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie R. Johnson.

Officially, at least here in our midst, spring has arrived, because the 26th annual dinner of the Boston Chapter of the Baseball Writers was held in the Sheraton Plaza Hotel last Thursday evening, with well over 1000 fans from all over the country and from every walk of life sitting in.

This is always a wonderful, colorful and nostalgic affair, and many of the same faces are seen each year. Honors are bestowed on baseball's present and past greats, and, to these diners, it is the end of the Winter and the start of spring.

The Mayor of Boston issued a Declaration naming Boston as "Midwinter Baseball Week", where the first World's Baseball Championship was won more than 60 years ago. It is still known all over the universe as the "national sport". Whether one follows it, or understands it, a nation without it would be very lonesome indeed. And, it is very much a part of our American "way of life."

Up in Cooperstown New York is the Baseball Hall of Fame, and each year a few former players, officials and dedicated men connected with the sport are enrolled in the shrine. And, two major league teams play a game in the cozy ball field just up the street from this magnificent building.

The only sad note to be noticed at these affairs are the names of those who have passed on, but whose memories are very much alive. On the program this year was a drawing by Bob Coyne of Austin "Duke" Lake who died within the year. Up in the corner of the picture was a box of a football player catching a pass, and under it noted that Lake was a classmate of an Arlington boy at Exeter and Lafayette named George Lowe, former Selectman from Arlington.

The toastmaster for the evening was another gentleman who lived here after marrying a local girl. He is the feature sports writer of the Boston Traveler, Tim Horgan, who did a real professional job.

As one goes down the list of former Arlington citizens who wrote sports for many Boston papers, the names of Arthur Duffy, Herman Nickerson, Burt Whitman, Walter "Bunny" Grannan, George Carens, and Larry Sweeney come to mind. And, familiar to many readers are the names of men who, while not from Arlington, were read for many years by its citizens. Names like Bill Cunningham, Dave Egan, Bill Grimes, Frank Collier, Ralph Wheeler, Mel Webb, Paul Shannon, and Gene Mack. Also, Fred Hoey, who was known to millions as the "voice of the radio" where he did so many fine broadcasts.

There is an expression that "everyone loves a winner" and another "out of sight, out of mind". But, the other evening a speaker mentioned the name of former manager of the Red Sox, Johnny Pesky, and one of the most spontaneous, and heartening demonstrations took place as the entire assemblage rose and applauded this nice man. He was fired because as a salesman, the chairman of the board and the sales manager did not think he sold enough merchandise.

However, he is now in another job with Pittsburg, as a coach, and the Red Sox fans will again turn their eyes to Fenway Park. And, those who have been saying for years, "wait until next year" hope they will never again hear that distasteful remark, "what's the matter with the Red Sox?"

To the editor:

Politicians confuse me. When I listen to them, they sound sincere; their purpose noble and unselfish. Then, someone advises me to vote for X because he is a good man, and we need him in the town. But, I am advised beware of XX because he is a bum, and if he gets in, the Lord help us. Funny thing—when the bums get in the schools don't close nor does grass grow in the streets. So, I'm confused.

Now, there's a vote coming up for Selectmen soon. It's refreshing to find, for once, I'm not a bit confused.

We have a man in our town who (yes, I know him personally) is honest. Even his political opponents find nothing to say against him. Come to think of it, I've never heard him say an unkind word about anyone. He knows Arlington from A to Z. He was born here, grew up here and went to school here.

Well, you might say—that's nice—so what? There's something more—a lot more. This man sincerely and wholeheartedly loves our town. He loves the stores, the fire stations, the schools, the hospital, the Boys' Club, and of more importance, the people—rich and poor—old and young. Now, it's common sense—if a man loves something, he won't hurt it. It's a good bet he will do everything in his power to make it grow and prosper. He makes me feel proud to be a part of Arlington.

His name? Arthur Saul—of course.
Charles (Larry) Bankart
48 Walnut st.

To the editor:

It was indeed a pleasure to read in the Advocate that Arthur Saul will again return to the political wars as a candidate for selectman in our town of Arlington.

Saul was chairman of the drive which raised $250,000 to insure a new modern boys' club for our town. I was one of his six co-chairmen. We all found him not only to be a very capable leader and organizer but also a man dedicated to full service for the youth and citizens of Arlington.

Saul's past record as a selectman of this town has shown him to be very fair and impartial throughout his entire career. He is the type of man to show inspired leadership.

At this time, I should like to add my support plus many of my friends and neighbors to those who have worked so hard convincing Saul to again run for selectman of this town.

Very truly yours,
G. D. Schofield

At The State House

by Rep. Janet Starr

The last few days I have been receiving a great many cards asking that I oppose H1606 and support H788, 1773, 1774 and I will use this medium for their interest and assuring them that I do indeed intend to oppose H1606 and support the others.

But may I ask those of you who write, please tell me what the bill is about that you are interested in. While it isn't an unbelievable amount of work, I do have to scurry about and look up to identify exactly what it is you are referring to.

Another reason that I ask this is that quite often the writer sends the wrong number and I find I am being asked to support building a new elephant house in Franklin Park when what my correspondent really wanted me to support was a study to explore ways of integrating the county penal institutions into the state system. So when you write please give the bill number and something about it, if possible what Committee the matter is before.

The above bills all have to do with the underpass that the M.D.C. has been directed to build along Memorial Drive and the attempts to prevent the loss of this really rare and beautiful park strip. Those of you who have been watching the destruction of the small but charming little area in Charlesgate where the Fens enter the Basin will realize how hopeless it is to try to placate commuters with more road space.

Storrow Drive with its underpasses is more congested than Memorial Drive without them, and the M.D.C., created to be the guardian of park land, has chanced into a major road building agency. These bills trying to protect Memorial Drive will be heard on February 10th in Room 436 before the Committee on Metropolitan Affairs.

I recommend that as many of you as can, come in to testify. Should the crowd be so big that they had to adjourn to the Gardner Auditorium it would have a substantial effect.

Fortunately several Republican representatives on the "right" side of the leadership fight wished to serve on the Agriculture Committee so I have been removed and placed on Pensions and Old Age, and Mercantile Affairs.

With the Republican membership reduced to 70 members the work load of all of us has greatly increased. Several House members find themselves having to serve on committees that meet at the same time, and for Republican Senators this is routine. Fortunately my committees meet on alternate mornings.

The Committee on Pensions and Old Age provides an excellent example of the need I have been stressing for professional committee staff. We have four brand new members of the Legislature including the Senate Chairman. Of the eleven remaining members only two served on the previous Committee. This gives us thirteen green members, four of them very green and two experienced members.

We start right in hearing bills that seek to change the pension system before most of us even know what it now is. We are assisted by Mr. John Manning of the State Retirement Board but he is not equipped to provide projections of costs, evaluation of effect on a career service. At our first meeting we had a bill before us seeking to allow people over 60 to join the retirement system. It would seem that before we could come to any reasonable conclusions as to whether this is a good idea or not, we ought to know how many people it is likely to effect, what the added costs would be not only to the state but to the cities and towns.

Unlike many states in Massachusetts we have an all over retirement law that all employees, state, county and municipal are under. The plan is administered and paid for locally for the county and local employees but we at the State Level set the rules. And for my money we don't have any reliable standards of information for knowing what we are doing. Naturally most of the bills before us seek to liberalize the system and without information and standards it is difficult to oppose what obviously would be nice, and that was exactly the reason given by one committee member for supporting this change. "It would be a nice thing to do".

Massachusetts is known for having the best and most liberal pension benefits and I am proud that we do. I would like to see a trend that would keep pensions in line with cost of living, but if we are to improve our pension program we must have some intelligent guidelines and not pass uncoordinated haphazard changes.

Pension costs in Belmont in 1961 were $136,696 an increase of 14% over 1960 and the 1962 figures were 13% higher than 1961. Arlington's pension costs in 1961 were $109,275 up 7% over 1960 and the 1962 figures were 11% higher than 1961. Also it must be remembered that county pension costs are carried by the town tax rate because of the county tax levied on the cities and towns.

These are significant amounts, and the trend in costs is rapid enough to make me wary. I would like to have somebody attached to our committee who could look more closely into the possible results of the bills before us. Staff has been hired for the Committee on Taxation so I am optimistic.

Complete Police Refresher Course

A two-week course updating Metropolitan District Police on the latest techniques in law enforcement has been completed by Officers Armando E. Lucarelli, 2 Mott st., and Eugene H. Rodley, 26 Magnolia st.

The refresher program was conducted at the Police Institute established by Commissioner Robert F. Murphy of the Metropolitan District Commission to familiarize the agency's 500 police officers with the latest legal and scientific developments in police work. Diplomas were awarded at graduation exercises held at Middlesex Fells Station auditorium in Medford.

Park Department Offers Physical Fitness Program

Arlington's Park and Recreation Dept. has set up a program for those who wish to get rid of that going soft feeling.

The following expresses the thoughts of those responsible for the program: "Why let yourself go soft when it's so easy to be fit? In just 10 to 15 minutes a day you can build up your body, look better, feel better and get more fun out of everything you do."

"If you have decided that it is time to get in shape, you have a rewarding adventure ahead."

"Like millions of adult Americans who today recognize the desirability of physical fitness and would earnestly like to achieve it, you probably have wondered what to do, how to begin, how far to go — and, not least of all, whether you can spare the time, whether fitness is something that can be achieved by busy people with little time to spare."

"Physical fitness can be achieved at any age. You do not achieve it overnight. It does take effort. But the resulting feelings of well-being, renewed strength and vitality are well worth the effort — and you can start on your way immediately."

"This program is entirely new. The Park and Recreation Department, realizing the need for such a function in the town, has outlined a plan of operation that is admittedly tentative. In construction but professional in operation and coordination. The plan, speculatively, is beginning slowly, but the Department, encouraged not only by the promising turnout, but also by the excellence of the program and the positive reaction of the adults, who among others include a doctor, a lawyer, as well as school teachers, office clerks and town employees, envisions a more ambitious future for this enterprise."

"The plan starts with an orientation — set set-series of mild exercises to limber up all major muscle groups and help assure a painless transition. There are then five graded levels. "As you move up from one to the next, you will be building toward a practical and satisfactory level of fitness. By building gradually — progressively — you will be building soundly. A sound conditioning program should gradually stretch your tolerance."

"Following a period of orientation, the participants branch off into groups of 12, six on a side to play volleyball or basketball. This aspect of the program develops wind, coordination, stamina and encourages and engenders feelings of good humor, competition and a sense of fun and relaxation."

"Weight lifting, rope climbing, and balancing compose the third phase and is strictly arbitrary depending on the personal preference of the individual."

"Harold B. Fairbanks, has coordinated, under the auspices of the Park and Recreation Department, this evening program for adults which began, Jan. 7, which will continue every Thursday until April."

"Mr. Fairbanks, a B.U. graduate class of 1956, is currently in his seventh year as physical education instructor at Arlington High School. Teaching two years at Stoneham prior to his coming to Arlington, Mr. Fairbanks has spent four years service in the Army and Air Force."

"All those interested in this program need only report to the high school gymnasium between 7 and 7:30 p.m. with shorts and sneakers. The emphasis is on informality not regimentation. The adult progresses at his own pace and is free to choose his own activities."

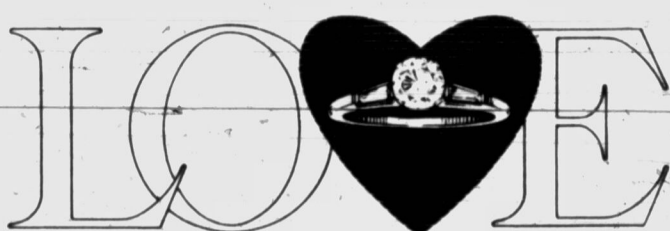

"You may not own a bank, but we can make you feel like a million dollars."

Candidate

Helen Carol Spina announces her candidacy for the two year term for the School Committee.

At the present time she is completing requirements for her Master's Degree in the field of education at Northeastern University. A 1949 graduate of Boston University where she received an A.B. Degree, she has long been interested in the problems of education.

Mrs. Spina resides at 71 Williams st. with her husband Albert, recently retired from the Arlington police department, and two children, William, 13, a student at Junior high west, and Joan 11, who attends Locke school.

Due to a great interest in the youth of the town and the ever present necessity of providing additional recreational facilities for them, she has actively supported the Pop Warner Football program since its inception.

In addition to participating in many civic and charitable drives, she has served on the various committees to provide deserved rewards for the Arlington high school championship teams.

A Town Meeting Member from precinct fourteen, Mrs. Spina feels that her wide background in the study of education and its related problems qualifies her to serve on the School Committee.

—George C. Scott, 51 Longmeadow rd., recently visited the Washington office of Congressman Torby Macdonald of this district.

Religious Census

The statistical report of Arlington's first all-church Religious Census, conducted April 12, 1964, as a cooperative venture of the town's five Roman Catholic and 12 Protestant Churches, has been released, according to the Rev. William W. Lewis, chairman of the statistical committee.

Calling attention to the valued assistance of Mrs. Gary A. Marple who completed the information and completed the charts, Mr. Lewis announced the report contains 44 pages and copies have been distributed to each participating church. Also, he stated that the report is available at Robbins Library and branches through the courtesy of Miss Stromdahl, librarian.

The Rt. Rev. Oscar R. O'Gorman and the Rev. Stuart Haskins served as co-chairmen for the census committee and more than 1000 laymen visited some 14,000 homes in securing the information in the report.

Boating Lectures

At AHS

Charles Fagone and Ralph Gioiosa, adult education coordinators of the Arlington High School, announce an eight lesson series of lectures on Safe Boating and Coastal Navigation by the USCG Auxiliary Flotilla 511, started on Jan. 27.

The first lecture on seamanship drew an attendance of 92 prospective captains. There will be seven more lectures on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m., covering outboard and inboard handling, knots and lashings, rules of the road, aids to navigation, compass, charts, and safe motorboating. There is still room for more students to enroll.

for filing. For Arlington residents, this made the closing date on Thursday, Jan. 28, at 5 p.m.

Notice did appear on the front page of local papers on Jan. 21, covering the change in the law. It was stated that the final day to file papers was Jan. 30, and that nominations papers could be obtained at the Town Clerk's office until 5 p.m. on Jan. 28. Papers had to be obtained by the candidates or by persons presenting the signed authorizations of candidates to so obtain the papers.

Another change in the law makes it necessary for papers for Town Election to be obtained from the Town Clerk only and not from the office of the Secretary of State as in previous years.

The number of papers issued to candidates for major office must not exceed four and to candidates for Town Meeting Member, must not exceed 1. Major office seekers must obtain fifty certified signatures and Town Meeting Member candidates must obtain ten certified signatures.

Candidates who have filed for both the two and three year term must withdraw one or the other candidacy on Feb. 8, which is designated as withdrawal date. If this is not done, a duplicate candidacy disqualifies them.

The only candidate facing no opposition is Town Moderator Lawrence E. Corcoran who has served in the same capacity for nine years. He narrowly defeated John J. Stanton by a vote of 4805 to 4372 in 1956.

Joseph S. Vahey is seeking re-election to the five-year term on the Housing Authority and is opposed by Eugene A. Cancelliere.

Two men are seeking the opening on the Board of Assessors. Incumbent Walter S. Coledge Jr., will oppose Charles R. Kent, recently resigned member of the School Committee.

Peirce Heating

A typographical error in the Jan. 28 issue of the Advocate stated that Articles 21 and 22 in the Town Warrant covered requests for oil burners at the Cutter and Stratton schools.

Article 21 does cover burners for the Cutter school but Article 22 is a request for conversion of the heating system at the Peirce school.

An article sponsored by a group — of Parents, Town Meeting Members, Selectmen and a State Representative was submitted to the Board of Selectmen Jan. 25 for inclusion in the 1965 Town Warrant. The article requests conversion of the heating system and a modern system of automatic controls at the Peirce School in 1965.

Coronary Attack

Let's face it, a coronary attack is a pretty alarming experience, as anyone who has ever had one well knows. However, probably the worst part comes later on as one begins to recover. Now, the full realization of the full impact of the attack fills your mind.

You survived the attack, good! But what happens now? What about your future? All kinds of fears and worries begin to zero in and sometimes a mood of depression overcomes you. Actually this attitude will slow down your progress and hamper your mending capability. That's why, at this time, it's important to try to maintain a reasonably optimistic outlook. Perhaps the best way to do this is to discuss your worries openly with your physician. Naturally, he's the best person to talk things over with, and to answer all those shadowy questions that may haunt your mind.

To begin with, the Massachusetts Department of Public Health believes it's reassuring to point out that the facts reveal that a great majority of patients survive their first coronary and most fully recover to enjoy many years of productive activity.

As a rule, practically all coronary patients ask why it happened to them? Indeed, many patients carefully explain that they were doing nothing unusual when it occurred.

Interestingly, studies of coronary attacks show that they occur as often during inactivity as they do following strenuous exercise. Physical exertion alone does not cause a coronary, as many believe. Although it happens suddenly, this kind of attack is the result of a slowly developing disease process of the coronary arteries, called atherosclerosis. These are the arteries that supply the heart with blood. The passageway between some of the arteries become rough and narrowed by deposits of cholesterol and other fatty substances and if a blood clot forms, it may become blocked in the narrowed artery. The normal flow to the heart muscle is cut off and an attack occurs. Doctors call this a coronary thrombosis, coronary occlusion or a myocardial infarction.

Patients ask why they had no warning. Atherosclerosis quietly develops over many years without producing symptoms. This is due mainly to the heart's own built-in repair system. When some of the coronary arteries narrow, nearby blood vessels get wider and even open up tiny ones to carry blood around the narrowed artery to the heart. This is called collateral circulation. It explains why many people with this disease do not have heart attacks. However, once an attack does occur, an increase of collateral circulation often helps the heart mend itself.

Depending on the extent of injury and the individual rate of healing, the development of collateral circulation usually takes between four and six weeks. When the convalescent period is over, most patients are able to take up life where they left off, with certain modifications, of course.

After one has a coronary and is back to the so-called routine, it's wise to be moderate. A full night's sleep is important and when possible, a nap or rest during the day is helpful. However, reasonable amounts of recreation, exercise and social activity are as good for a person who has had a coronary as anyone else. Doctors agree that it's vital for people who have heart disease to keep their weight at, or a little below, normal. Essential also is a well-balanced diet consisting of substantial amounts of protein, vitamins and minerals. A fat controlled diet sometimes is prescribed in an effort to reduce the amount of cholesterol and other fatty substances in the blood which hopefully may retard continued development of atherosclerosis.

Smoking is a health hazard for anyone, and a special risk for people who have coronary disease. Cigar and pipe smoking appear less risky, because these smokers do not inhale.

Babson Says —

Labor Prospects For This Year

Babson Park, Mass., January 28. There will be a welter of labor wrangles netting the nation's business during 1965. The temper of the times has already been established by the dock workers, who turned down the generous agreement won for them by their union leaders, and struck. The strike along the East and Gulf coasts was attributed to a "misunderstanding". Readers can expect to hear of quite a few more "misunderstandings" in other fields in 1965.

Reasons For Expected Disturbances

Looming on the not-too-distant horizon is trouble off the steel front. In the two previous pacts, Big Steel and the steel workers have agreed on fringes instead of wage boosts. This time the union wants raises of, at least 15¢ an hour and a doubling of the shift differentials. So far, the White House has let labor go way beyond and 3 1/2% annual productivity guideline in pay hikes (auto workers got about 5% last year), even though it has warned company managements against increasing steel prices.

President Johnson, anxious to hold the loyalty of both labor and business, would prefer to stay on the sidelines during important negotiations. He very evidently believes in free, collective bargaining. But will he dare to permit an industry-wide strike that might throw the entire economy out of whack? There's no question but that there will be interesting doings in the steel industry very soon. Whether the Steelworkers President McDonald is dethroned by his rival, I. W. Abel, or not, the union's aims will be high and its tactics tough.

Auto Gains Spur To Other Unions

In addition to the innumerable built-in wage boosts automatically given employees by multi-year union contracts already in force (last year the hourly average gain in such deferred raises was 7 1/4%; this year it will climb to 7.3%), the stage is set for heavy wage demands right through this year. Almost always at bargaining tables union negotiators ask for new wage advances that are substantially greater than those included in the deferred contracts. We can get some idea of the upward pressure that will be applied this year from the realization that these "built-in" raises do not include such costly items as more liberal medical care, insurance, longer vacations, and more holidays. Neither do they take into account cost-of-living allowances, which almost invariably become part of the base pay.

There are many contracts that will be expiring and reopening this year, with raises and fringes being granted in many instances large enough to encourage fresh drives throughout the rest of the affected industries. And pressure will be especially intense with business still zooming along with the example of the 5% pay and fringe-benefit gains that have already been awarded the auto workers.

Employer Resistance Will Stiffen

One reason for expecting more labor difficulties this year is that management's determination to reject excessive demands is as strong as labor's yen to make them. It will be seen that many employers — particularly those in the more experienced group — will prefer to risk an expensive strike rather than allow labor costs to move any nearer the danger point. They reason that business will not always be this good, so they must plan against less prosperous times. Also, many feel that they will have to fight the profits squeeze without being able to lift prices very much, to avoid antagonizing the White House and weakening their competitive position in the market place.

Management, in general, is also getting its back up over the efforts being made by unions to have a say in a number of areas that employers have always considered their prerogatives. These include such key issues as automation, contract letting, and the shutting down or even sale of businesses. Management is finding that the National Labor Relations Board and other "referees" are inclined to favor unions in such incursions; and they know that the whole problem must be fought out at the bargaining-table level. Such dissensions will stir up considerable trouble in 1965.

Sen. Pellegrini Endorses Bullock

Two hundred and fifty friends and supporters paid tribute to chairman of the Board of Selectmen John W. Bullock and his wife Jacqueline at a reception held at the American Legion Hall on Jan. 22.

Sen. Philibert Pellegrini acted as master of ceremonies and introduced David Leone, Chairman of the Planning Board who praised Bullock's ability to work closely with the Planning Board on many important projects. Selectman John Bileaf spoke about Bullock's conscientious work as the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen. Bileaf termed Bullock "A man of tremendous courage and ability".

Sen. Pellegrini then introduced the guest of honor by stating, based on John Bullock's record of accomplishments as Selectman and more recently as Chairman of the Board, this man deserves the wholehearted support of the voters of Arlington in his campaign for re-election in March.

Selectman Bullock reviewed his past three years on the Board of Selectmen. He cited the new sources of tax revenue derived from the apartments at the old Town Yard, which are worth well over one million dollars; the alleviation of the commuter problem at Harvard Sq. by moving the MBTA buses underground, and the Board's support of the Transportation Bill which will eventually bring MBTA Rapid Transit to Arlington.

Bullock introduced his campaign manager Leo Fitzpatrick who promised an active campaign which would bring Bullock's record of accomplishments and programs for the future into every Arlington home.

A.H.S. Romps To Seventh Straight

Coach Eddie Burns varsity hockey team completely outclassed Cambridge Latin 11 to 0, Saturday afternoon to win its seventh game without defeat. Cambridge played good hockey in the first period holding the local boys to two goals.

With the score 2 to 0 at the start of the second stanza the Arlington steam-roller added five quick goals and iced the game.

In the third and final period Arlington scored four more markers.

In the first period Bobby Bertagna scored the initial goal with Donnelly getting the assist and before the period came to a close the pair reversed the procedure with Donnelly scoring and Bertagna getting the assist.

The five goal barrage saw Pete Morse and "Toz" score unassisted. Ronan tallied with help from "Toz" and John Deveraux, and Bob Havren and "Toz" scored unassisted.

Jorgenson started the final scoring spree with an unassisted goal; Bob Havren added another with Walsh and "Jorgie" getting credit for assists.

Smith then had an unassisted score and Morse scored his second goal and the final goal of the game with Walsh getting his second assist.

Capt. "Toz" is now the team's leading point getter with seven goals and two assists.

The second place Newton team with six wins and one defeat opposes Arlington Saturday at the Arena. Should Arlington win again the locals are almost assured

Pee Wee Hockey

Maroons 2 — Maple Leafs 1

In the big game for top spot the Maroons nipped the Maple Leafs 2-1. Wayne Butler got the Maroons started as he took a short pass from Bernie Quinlan and drilled it into the right corner. Gary Ogden made it two for the Maroons as he blasted a screen shot from the point.

Mike Curry put the Leafs back in the game as he scored on a feed from Wayne Hale. Great goal tending by Herb Richardson in the Maroon net stopped the Leafs as they bled down in the closing moments.

Rangers 2 — Canadiens 1

Steve White's goal late in the game gave the Rangers a 2-1 victory over the Canadiens. John Benkoski scored first for the Rangers on a rebound off the stick of Jim Powers. Benkoski also fed White on his tally.

John Pompey's goal tied it up for the Canadiens. Bill Rotundi assisted on the goal. Art Brown and Steve Dullings were in the nets and both made some great stops.

Red Wings 2 — Bruins 0

The Red Wings won their first game by topping the Bruins 2-0. Mark Noonan scored first with a neat left from about 10 feet which caught the ton of the net. Jay Sevcian added an insur-

of first place at the end of the season. The Red and Gray beat Newton 2 to 1 the Saturday before Christmas.

ance marker assisted by Steve Magliano.

Mike Balozur in the Wings' net turned back the Bruins with some great saves.

Black Hawks 1 — Rockets 1

The Hawks and Rockets battled to a 1-1 draw. John Corbett put the Hawks out front as he banged in Art Taylor's rebound. Bill Mahoney tied it up late in the game as his 30 footer caught the left corner. Ed Muleahy gained an assist on the play. Tom Egan played a great game in the Rockets' net.

Frosh Win

Not to be out done by the high school varsity hockey team the A.H.S. freshman hockey club crushed Brookline with 9 goals while Goalle Ed Walsh was registering a shut out.

The game was featured by a "hat trick" turned in by Tim Russell who scored a goal in each of the periods. Billy Corkery had two goals and three assists and Connors also had two goals. Hamilton and Harrington had a goal each. Wayne Ogden had one assist while Marty Toczylowski had three assists for the day.

Saturday morning the frosh team plays Newton a team that has won six and lost 2. Arlington's record is seven wins and a tie with Medford in eight games. The Arena will soon pick an all star freshman team and it is a sure bet that several local boys will be named to it.

The Hat Trick - - -

Phil Cronin waves his arms after tallying third goal in "hat trick" effort versus Sacred Heart, Sunday. The Xavier star paced Arlington's Jack Cusack's team to another win and first place in the league standing. Phil and his mates will face Arlington Catholic in the "big game," Feb. 14.

Elementary Records

The strong Thompson Patriots led by high scorer Tony Zacher romped over the Crosby Royals 29-20. James Casey (8 points), Robert Nardella (4 points) and Robert Prince (4 points) helped in keeping the Patriots undefeated and in first place. Rick Kreuz (9 points) and Joe Traynor (6 points) led the way for the Crosby team. The Hardy 76'ers bounced back from an overtime loss last week to beat the Bishop Crusaders 24-6. Stephen Morrissey (11 points) and Matty Teeven (6 points) featured the Hardy attack while Tom Cullinane, Gary Pichette and James Nicosia spirited the Bishop team.

Steven Webb scored all of his team's 17 points as the Cutter Lakers defeated the Parmenter Hawks 17-10. The Locke Warriors remained in second place in the Western League by defeating the Stratton Celtics 14-9. Scott Nelson (7 points) and Buddy Leverone (3 points) led the way for Locke while Jim Butler (5 points) spearheaded the Stratton attack. The St. James Cardinals remained on top of the Western League in a come from behind 24-11 victory over the Peirce Knicks. John Chisholm (7 points) and Vinny Megna (5 points) led the way for the victors while Steve Gould (9 points) kept the Peirce hopes alive. In a defensive battle the Dallin Pistons defeated the Brackett Nationals 8-4. Mike Kane (4 points), Mark Holian (2 points) and Rick Savage (2 points) led the way for the Pistons while Bob McCabe scored 3 points for Brackett.

Eighth Win

Arlington Catholic high school's J.V.'s ran its winning streak to eight straight games, with a 33-22 victory over Our Lady's of Newton, Friday night.

The win now puts the local juniors two full games ahead of Sacred Heart of Weymouth and Our Lady's in the league standing.

A strong defense, sparked by Frank Kerwin, Mike Foley, John O'Brien and Bob Pihl kept the locals out front all the way.

Kerwin and Foley blocked a dozen shots between them.

Catholic Moves To Second Place

Girls Win - Lose

A powerful Weston team blanked Arlington high school's girls' basketball team in the first period and went on to a 29-11 victory, but in another tilt the locals out-gunned the Watertown girls 34-25.

Judy Rizzo sparked the Arlington attack in the Watertown game with 10 points, but it was Susan Clarke's 7 points in the final stanza which put a close game beyond recall.

Miss Timperio led the Watertown entry in scoring 10 points.

Jayne Dumas played an outstanding game on defense for the locals, ably assisted by Mary Ann Dobie.

Arlington picked up much of its margin by sinking 10 of 21 foul shots.

The locals jumped out front in this contest 10-6 after one period, but then Watertown split the scoring evenly 5 and 7 in the second and third stanzas.

Miss Clarke's 7 points led Arlington to a 12-7 last period advantage.

The Weston contest was just the reverse as the Watertown game with Arlington being outplayed in the first and fourth stanzas, but holding even in the middle periods.

Weston blanked the locals 10-0 at the end of one period, with Arlington trailing 14-3 and 19-7 at the other check points. The final period ended with a 10-4 margin for the winners.

Despite the strong defensive play of Arlington against the powerful Weston team, four field goals out of 60 just couldn't keep the locals within striking distance.

Susan Clarke tallied 6 points for the local girls, with Barbara Arena adding 2 and Judy Rizzo 3, but that was all.

Marty Wvzler scored 12 points and Sue Anderson 10 for the winners, most of them from 10-15 feet out.

First Loss

by Tom Driscoll

Our Lady's of Newton handed high flying Arlington Catholic high school its second loss of the season in an overtime tilt Friday night, 74-66.

Catholic led by 12 points at the end of the first period, by 13 at the end of the half, and by 7 points going into the final stanza.

Our Lady's kept "plugging" away, however, and knotted the count at 60-60 at the end of regulation time. The league-leaders, with three starters out of action on fouls, couldn't find the hoop in the overtime period, and as a result Our Lady's outscored them 14-6.

Steve Dooley led the Catholic scorers with 27 points, 16 of which he threw up in the first half. Dave White added 14.

The locals still have a full game lead over second place St. Columbkille's of Brighton, and have put together a 13-2 overall mark for the season.

Double Whitewash

The J.V. hockey team from Arlington high held the opposition scoreless while chalking up a total of 13 goals themselves in recent games.

Dedham was defeated in one contest 4-0, while Cambridge Latin suffered a defeat at the hands of the locals in another contest 9-0.

Dedham stayed on even terms with Arlington in the first quarter at the game at Watson rink, but Jackie Byrne put Arlington in the scoring column with a fine solo effort, and Bobby Havren added two to the total, with Diskin scoring the final marker for the locals.

In the Latin game, the fine work of the Cambridge goalie prevented the score from running up to higher figures, as Ken and Dan Diskin, Charlie Costa, Rich Butler, Tom Peters, and Dennis Sullivan all added to the original marker scored by Glenn Hale.

LACK FORMS

Alvin M. Kelley, district director of Internal Revenue Service at Boston, has announced that there are not sufficient of the new Forms 941 and 941A Continuation Sheets for use by all employers at this time.

It is, therefore, permissible to submit the fourth quarter return for 1964 on the old-style form.

It is expected that the revised form will be in ample supply before the time for filing the first quarter return for 1965.

Capt Jim Bourke tallied twice as Arlington Catholic high school moved back into second place in the Catholic hockey lead, Sunday beating Xavarian 6-1. First place Xavier of Concord held onto a slim two point lead over the locals beating Sacred Heart 4-1 and dropping that team into third place behind Arlington.

Catholic tallied three times in the first minutes of the contest to sew up a win. Driscoll tallied first with Capt. Jim Bourke picking up and assist.

Bourke himself scored seconds later on an unassisted effort and Martell chalked up the first of his two goals on a pass from Coleman.

Coleman, on a solo effort tallied Arlington's fourth goal before the period ended.

Xavarian tallied its only goal in the second period.

Shea scored Arlington's fifth goal of the game in the final canto with Coleman picking up another assist, and then Capt. Bourke added the final tally on a solo effort.

Bourke now leads all Catholic scorers with 14 points, followed by Coleman and Charlie Houghton with 13.

Meanwhile, first place Xavier knocked off its closest rival Sacred Heart 4-1 with Phil Cronin tallying three goals and Mark McKenna the fourth.

Capt. Charlie Enright of Arlington added an assist on the McKenna tally.

Thus the stage is just about set for the big game Feb. 14 when Arlington and Xavier meet. The teams have split two games to date.

Mothers & Wives of WW II Vets Club Maintains Program of Contributions

Presents Kabuki Dance Program

Shugetsu Fujima, famous Kabuki-style dancer from Tokyo now living in Arlington, shown in costume for Urashima, traditional dance depicting the Rip Van Winkle-like story of a fisherman who returns from a palace under the sea and finds all his friends gone and everyone he meets a stranger.

A program of Kabuki dancing was recently presented to the First Parish Unitarian Universalist Church Couples club at the dinner meeting in the church.

Miss Shugetsu Fujima, internationally recognized as one of the most outstanding Kabuki-style dancers of Japan, demonstrated her art in a modified version of her December recital sponsored by the Japan Society of Boston at Paine Hall, Harvard.

In her program for the Couples club, Miss Fujima performed a medley of joyous folk dances of the various districts, and Urashima, Japan's musical version of the Rip Van Winkle tradition. In celebration of the New Year, Miss Fujima's daughter, Kazuko Mikawa, 13, a pupil at Junior High East, and Yoriko Kitano, 10, a pupil at the Cutter School, performed a dance version of the game of battledore and shuttlecock in the traditionally bright kimonos of young girls.

Shugetsu began her study of Kabuki-style dance at three, obtaining at fifteen the authorized certificate of Professional Dancing Teacher and receiving the stage name of "Shugetsu Fujima" from the Fujima School. She has several times won the all-Japan Dance Contest and has been acclaimed for her excellence in creating original dances, as she presented many recitals on the stages of the most outstanding theatres in Tokyo and on tour of the Hawaiian Islands.

During her career in Japan, she was honored in three consecutive years by being invited to former Prime Minister Ikeda's official party, given annually to honor the most outstanding artists in Japan. Before coming to Arlington a year and a half ago, she instructed many students in Tokyo who performed on stage and TV programs.

She now resides at 151 Mystic st. with her husband, Dr. Yukio Mikawa, a physicist at Geophysics Corp. of America in Burlington, and their daughter Kazuko.

Couples Club guests who assisted in the preparation and serving of the suki-yaki dinner were Dr. and Mrs. Saichi Mishima, 9a Lakeview, Mrs. Noriaki Ikemoto, 11a Lakeview, Mrs. Shusaku Kitano, 71 Grove st., and Dr. and Mrs. Mikawa (Shugetsu Fujima). Other guests were Rev. and Mrs. Theodore A. Webb of Winchester. Mr. Webb is executive director of the Mass. Bay District of Unitarian Universalist Churches.

The committee in charge of the evening included Mr. and Mrs. John Fitzmaurice, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Homer, and Mr. and Mrs. Chester G. A. Zucker.

The Mothers and Wives of World War II Veterans Club of Arlington was organized during WW II by Mrs. Elizabeth Berg and Mrs. A. Doucette for the purpose of helping hospitalized veterans.

A large number of Mothers and Wives of veterans joined, but as the years went by, many either moved away or passed away. In the early years, funds were raised by card parties, rummage sales, food sales and country stores. The proceeds were used to purchase radios, televisions, wheelchairs, tape recorder, summer outside furniture, canteen books, barcalounge chair, auditorium chairs and a room furnished in the addition to Chelsea Soldiers Home. Many smaller gifts were donated. Also ward parties were held at the Bedford hospital.

Among the hospitals receiving the above gifts were Bedford Veterans, Chelsea Naval, Chelsea Soldiers Home, and West Roxbury Veterans hospital.

The most recent gift by the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library. A letter was received from Sen. Edward M. Kennedy thanking the members for the donation to this most worthy cause. More recently another acknowledgment of appreciation came from Jacqueline Kennedy. These letters will be cherished by the Club in memory of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Club officers include, Mrs. Margaret Houston, pres.; Mrs. Josephine D'Unger, vice pres.; Mrs. Sally Littleton, sec.; Mrs. Katherine D'Unger, treas.; Mrs. Margaret Hogan, Chaplain; and Mrs. Katherine McMath, auditor.

Speaker Gives History of Symmes

At a recent meeting of the Arlington Rotary club, the origin and development of Symmes Hospital was discussed by Donald E. Nickerson, president of the board of trustees of Symmes.

Stephen Symmes, who died in 1901 left his estate on Mystic st., "to establish and maintain forever a hospital on my home place." This land had been in his family since 1701, having been purchased from a Sachem squaw.

It was to be administered by a board of trustees. In those early days, it was the general practice to locate hospitals on the highest ground available, so by court permission, the Mystic st. land was sold and the present hilltop land was acquired. In 1902, the Town of Arlington donated ten acres in the rear of the almshouse.

The original Symmes hospital was opened in February 1912. In 1928, the capacity was increased to 48 beds. In 1949, it was further increased to 97 beds.

Miss Nora Brown was an early administrator who reportedly ruled with an iron hand. Later, administrators included Vernon Rich-1948 to 1957, who was succeeded by Everett VanValkenberg in 1957.

After a community-wide fund drive in 1961-62, and help from federal funds, the newest addition was begun. Upon completion in early spring of this year, the capacity of the hospital will be increased to 160 beds.
